

Pastime with good company

Henry VIII (1491-1547)

$\text{♩} = 120$

1. Pas - time with good com - pa - ny I love and shall un - til I die.
Grant to last, but non with nigh so God bid me the spi - rit of
2. Youth must pass and down the years for good on earth for pas - - times.
Grant the nee - dy things and best oh God can prance us to thy
3. Grant the nee - dy gone is he. He's gone to find and to feed.
Grant the nee - dy its gol - den hill, but eve - ry man that pease be life. For my pas - time I sing and dance, my heart is dead will do'er these jest. For I go there in cheap-east dress sur - prise us all the who can nil. The best en - sure, the worst is through my mind shall be that true to fall. For my com - fort who shall be that. For that.

9

17

say but mirth and play is but of all. For all.
you as thruth en - dures as shall I al - ways be. The be.